with Visits to Trieste and the Julian Alps of Slovenia

The cities of the world take on their unique characteristics in large part from their geography. This is especially true of Venice, which is poised between the cultures of the East and West and whose merchants plied the seas and served as a bridge between two cultures. A view of the city from the waters of the Adriatic reveals structures that could as easily be in Istanbul. The wealth generated through trade and conquest created a city of beautiful art and architecture, a city that is one of the most romantic and mysterious on earth. The old historic center is situated on 118 islands connected by an intricate lattice of canals. The Grand Canal, with its bobbing boatmen winds around the largest of the squares, Piazza San Marco. This is Venice, with its famous cafes and its Byzantine Basilica. We've selected each day's guided tours to bring you to different areas of the city and its lagoons.

This is the second time Edventures travels to Venice and we have designed the trip to provide stimulating group activities as well as private time that allows you to find your favorite cafe, wine bar, or island.

As a prelude to Venice, we will explore additional cities of northern Italy, as well as the beauty of Slovenia. Only 100 miles from Venice, the country offers a completely different geography and experience, combining the best of the Italian, German and Slavic worlds. Formerly the westernmost territory of Yugoslavia, Slovenia offers visitors vistas of the Julian Alps and villages, lakes and picturesque castles. Edventures staff visited Slovenia in 2022 and is eager to share its special beauty with our travelers.

We have selected local guides in each location who will bring the past and present alive.

In addition, Liz Mitchell, who is a favorite tour leader of Edventures, will be our tour manager throughout. Travelers praise her intimate knowledge of our destinations, the ability to supply key historical and contemporary information in a highly intelligible manner, her mastery of every logistical detail and her maintenance of a calm, pleasant and cheerful manner.

DAY 1: Tuesday, September 15

Depart for Slovenia

Edventures will arrange group travel from the Saratoga Springs and Albany areas (optional coach to JFK) and group flight from JFK to Ljubljana, Slovenia.

DAY 2 Wednesday, September 16 Arrive in Ljubljana

We arrive in Ljubljana, Slovenia's capital, and transfer to our hotel after an arrival of 12:30 p.m. We will settle into our rooms when they are available and travelers can rest before an orientation meeting with Liz Mitchell at approximately 6:30 p.m. Our welcome dinner will be at a local restaurant.

Overnight: Ljubljana for 3 nights at Hotel MMeals: Onboard our flight and welcome dinnerDay 3 Thursday, September 17 Exploring the capital city

As the capital city of Slovenia, Ljubljana is especially vibrant and the Ljubljanica River provides the perfect setting for picturesque streets, pastel-colored buildings, and captivating architecture. We will have a half-day morning guided tour with the afternoon available for continuing your own leisurely tour. Beginning in 1335 and continuing for six centuries, Slovenia was ruled by Hapsburg emperors and imposed Austrian culture on its inhabitants. You will notice Baroque facades from the 16th and 17th centuries in the Old Town. As you stroll through the city, you will also notice Viennese Art Nouveau architecture, which appeared after an earthquake destroyed major parts of the city in 1895. There are numerous museums, markets, and shopping opportunities to enjoy.

Overnight: LjubljanaMeals: BreakfastDay 4 Friday, September 18 Excursion to the Julian Alps

Today's visit takes us to the snow-capped alpine mountain area of northwest Slovenia for a full-day excursion to Bled which is located in the foothills of the stunning Julian Alps. We begin with a visit to the imposing 11th century Bled Castle, perched on a steep cliff high above the lake, creating a dramatic backdrop to the city. We will explore the castle grounds and visit the museum to gain insight into the history of the castle and the surrounding area.

We will continue the day on Lake

Bled aboard a pletna, a traditional rowing boat, for a visit to Bled Island and the Church of the Assumption, home to a wonderful art collection.

In the afternoon we will visit the small medieval town of Radovljica where we will enjoy a traditional lunch at Gostilna Lectar with a selection of traditional Slovenian dishes and wine.

The evening is at leisure.

Overnight: Ljubljana

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5 Saturday, September 19, From Ljubljana to Lipica and Trieste

As we head to the Karst region of Slovenia, we are drawing closer to Italy. The Karst region is a unique landscape formed by the dissolution of soluble bedrock, featuring caves, sinkholes, underground rivers and springs. As we travel through this area, we will visit the farm where Lipizzaner horses are bred and trained. Most of us associate Lipizzaner horses with the famed Spanish Riding School of Vienna, but their origin is Lipica, where in the 16th century the Austrian Habsburgs established a stud farm for classical dressage.

We will observe the methods and approaches for training these unique horses. The whole experience is designed around the horses and their history and we'll learn about their breeding, training and daily life. Under the watchful eye of the main trainer, the riders will perform all the movements you can see in the Lipica Riding School's show.

After the visit to the farm, we continue to Trieste, Italy, located on the shores of the Adriatic Sea and boasting a unique blend of Italian, Astro-Hungarian, and Slovenian cultures.

Overnight: Trieste, Italy

Meals: Breakfast

Hotel: Starhotels Savoia Excelsior Palace

Day 6 Sunday, September 20

Miramare Castle, Wines of Friuli Region, Trieste

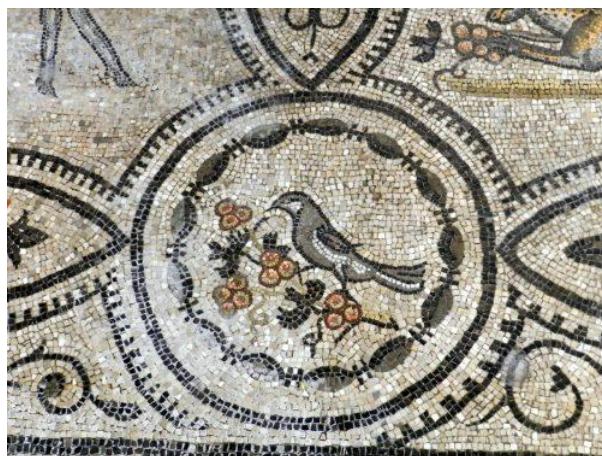

We will get taste of the beauty of the waters of Trieste with a visit to the 19th century Miramare Castle, which overlooks the Gulf of Trieste. The castle was built by the ever-present Habsburgs, this time Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian, who built it for his wife with the goal of providing maximum vistas accompanied by impeccably manicured gardens. After exploring the castle's interior, we will stroll through the gardens and take in the beautiful scenery.

We will have lunch and sample local wines in a countryside estate before returning to Trieste. The afternoon will be free to explore the beautiful city of Trieste.

Overnight: Trieste

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch May 7 Monday, September 21 Ancient Aquileia, Grado and Venice
The entire area we have visited so far was once part of the Roman Empire and until now we have seen no signs of it. That changes today on our way to Venice when we stop at Aquileia, a major port city of the Roman Empire which once had a population of more than 100,000 inhabitants and served as a major center of Christianity. That all ended in 452 when Atilla the Hun sacked and destroyed the city.

Today the city is designated by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site both for the remnants of the Roman city, but more importantly for the exquisite mosaic floor in the Basilica of Sant Maria Assunta, which we will visit.

Atilla's ravaging of Aquileia had important consequences for the founding of Venice. Refugees from Aquileia sought safety in a new lagoon where they began the construction of a new city: Venice.

After visiting Aquileia, a short drive will take us to the charming town of Grado where you can spend free-time exploring on your own before continuing to Venice where we will arrive in the late afternoon and check into our hotel. Grado, Italy, known as the Island of the Sun, is special for its unique blend of sandy beaches, a charming Venetian-style pedestrian Old Town and the pristine Grado Lagoon. In Venice, we will transfer by boat to our hotel for the next three nights.

Overnight: Venice

Meals: Breakfast

Hotel: Eurostars Residenza Cannaregio

Day 8 Tuesday, September 22 Tour of Venice

Our discovery of Venice begins with a walking tour with our local guide through the maze of narrow alleyways and bridges to St. Mark's Square, where we can see its most prominent monuments: the pink marble Doge's Palace, the Bridge of Sighs and the golden Basilica of San Marco.

After lunch at a local restaurant, we will explore the Venetian Lagoon by transferring to a boat which will take us to Mazzorbo, a small island, and the winery Venissa where we will explore the land and taste its wines.

Overnight: Venice

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9 Wednesday September 23 Day at Leisure

Today you are free to explore Venice on your own. We will have a farewell dinner at a local restaurant.

How much walking are we doing?

Throughout Europe tourist buses can only drop off and pick up passengers at certain points, so often we will walk to and from the designated stop to get to the town center. Alpine areas will have gentle hills. We will be visiting old cities devoted to remaining old, and in order to experience their pleasures we will be walking on uneven ground, on uneven steps, over cobblestone streets and sometimes up and down hilly terrain. In Venice guests must be nimble enough to get on and off boats and to walk up and down numerous bridges.
